

INCLUSIVE TOURISM: IN NUMBERS

3.8 MILLION

Overnight trips by people with a disability in the first quarter of 2017

3.3 BILLION

Dollars spent on overnight and day trips for people with a disability in the first quarter of 2017

4.2 MILLION

People have a disability, or almost 20% of the total population

77%

Of people with a disability recently participated in social and recreational activities (eg: visiting a public place, going on holiday or camping)

8.2 MILLION

Australians are over the age of 50. This is expected to increase by almost 50% by 2037

50%

of Australians over 65 years old have a disability, even if they do not identify with it

64%

Of holidays taken by Baby Boomers are to regional areas

---

 Share